

Round Four

TSDC 2019

The background of the slide is a close-up, slightly blurred image of several US coins. Visible details include the word "LIBERTY" on a coin, the word "INTEGRITY" on another, and the word "FEDERAL" on a third. The coins are in various orientations, creating a textured, metallic background.

“An economist is an expert who will know tomorrow why the things he predicted yesterday didn’t happen today.”

– Laurence J. Peter

Theme:

Economics

Information Slide

Economic terrorism is an attempt by a non-state actor of a coordinated destabilisation, in order to disrupt the economic and financial stability of a state, including but not limited to, aggressive market tactics, hoarding dollar reserves for currency manipulation and physical attacks to ports.

Motions

- 1) THBT developing countries should embrace free trade
- 2) THBT poor countries should pursue aggressive population control as a condition to receive development aid
- 3) THBT using economic terrorism is justified to combat unfair trade practices of large nations

Prep time:
30 mins